Some businesses gain an hour of alcohol sales when Daylight Saving Time ends

PORTLAND, Ore. – Oregonians will officially move their clocks back one hour at 2:00 a.m. Sunday, Nov. 6 as Daylight Saving Time ends. Businesses that serve alcohol until 2:00 or 2:30 a.m. -- such as nightclubs, bars, taverns and grocery stores will gain an extra hour of alcohol sales when 2:00 a.m. becomes 1:00 a.m.

Some businesses lose a half hour of liquor sales in the spring when Daylight Saving Time begins.
