OREGON
Official State Map

Oregon isn't a place you see as much as you do. Sure, you can sightsee our beautiful coastline, volcanic mountains, crystal-clear lakes and high-desert landscapes. But you can do so much more. We have hiking trails through alpine passes, across ancient fossil beds, along Oregon Trail wagon ruts and to roaring waterfalls. For fun on two wheels, you can ride an Oregon Scenic Bikeway, pedal a fat-tire bike on the beach or hit a world-famous mountain bike trail. And with 200+ public golf courses, it's no wonder Oregon ranks high among golf fans. But there's much more: paragliding the Gorge, fishing the Deschutes and rafting Hells Canyon, plus diverse heritage sites, the longest ski season in North America and 363 miles of public coastline.

Crater Lake and historic Crater Lake Lodge

Oregon's farm-fresh abundance - from wild-caught fish and grass-fed beef to heirloom fruit and freshly foraged mushrooms - feeds a vibrant dining scene. And when you're ready to raise a glass, hundreds of craft breweries and award-winning wineries await.

We invite you to explore our special corner of the world. Just wherever you go, travel like an Oregonian. Take the pace slow, leave the parks and trails better than you found them, and say a friendly word to everyone you meet.

Welcome to our beautiful state! Over the years, I've treasured having adventures across Oregon - from the Pacific Coast to the Willows, from the Gorge to the Steens, and everywhere in between. Whether you are visiting a city, stopping in a small town, or exploring our beaches, mountains, rivers, lakes and open spaces - I hope that you, like me, will fall in love with the beauty of the state and the openness of the people. While you're here, don't miss our hometown berries, wine, fruit, fibers and so many other incredible gifts from Oregon's bounty. Please travel safely and follow our rules of the road. We are glad you are here!

Governor Tina Kotek
