Dear Mr. Nick's Boss, ①

I am writing to say thank you for having Mr. Nick as a caseworker.
I believe that God used him to save my life.
I hope that you will honor him and recognize what a difference he makes in the lives of kids.
He doesn't see them for the mistakes they've made.
He feels like a really awesome big brother who cares.
I was so lost and on the wrong path when he was assigned to help me.
I have a really good life now. Well, way better than it was.
I would be dead right now if he didn't listen to me share my problems.
My life is so much better because God brought me lots of help when I needed it most. I hope that the people who know Mr. Nick will pat him on the back and say, "Wow, you are really nice and you help kids a lot!" Because he really did. When my parents weren't there, he was to encourage me. I have grown up a lot since then, and I am able to work a steady job now and am excited about my life now. I don't do bad things anymore because of sadness. I have hope, and I miss Mr. Nick, but I know lots of other kids need help too. Please give Mr. Nick lots of high 5's and good jobs. Because he was chosen to help me for a reason. And it worked! Please tell everyone else that they are doing a good job too. I know the kids that they are helping will feel the same way some day. Keep up the good work and thank you so much,

Mr. Nick's boss, for picking him to help people. I'm sure you are a very nice person too. Good job! Remember that!
Thank you for not giving up on even the crazy
kids in really bad shape.
I'm living proof that with help and love from people who really care, we will be alright. Thank you for not giving up on me!
Now I want to help other kids who need help like I did, and I hope that I will be good at it. You all inspire me!
Thank you all for being nice, so nice to me and all the other kids. You changed my life, and I am so much better now.

Your friend,

a kid who needed help once that you helped A LOT
