Do YOU need to log in this Open Enrollment?

Answer the questions below to decide.

Does your employer require you to enroll?

Yes → YES, you need to log in. Follow your employer's instructions. OEBBenroll.com

NOT SURE? Check with your employer.

No ↓

Are any of your current plans discontinued for 2020-21?

Yes → YES, you need to log in. Enroll in a new plan or risk not having coverage for 2020-21. OEBBenroll.com

NOT SURE? The cover letter in your Open Enrollment packet shows which plans are available to you.

No ↓

Do you want to make any changes for 2020-21?
For example, would you like to:
- Add, drop or change a plan?
- Add or drop a dependent?
- Update address, phone, email, text message authorization, tobacco usage status, Medicare eligibility, or beneficiary information?

Yes → YES, you need to log in. Open Enrollment is the one time each year you can make changes to your plans or dependents without a qualifying life event. You can update your personal information anytime. OEBBenroll.com

No → If you answered "no" to all these questions, NO, you do not need to log in. Your current enrollments and information will roll forward for 2020-21.

OEBB's Open Enrollment is Aug. 15–Sept. 15, 2020 for most employers. Confirm YOUR deadline with your employer.
Need Help? Find detailed instructions at: oregon.gov/OHA/OEBB/Guides/MyOEBB-Enrollment-Guide.pdf