Commission Member Compensation

(1) All Commission members shall receive up to $155 or the current Oregon legislative per diem stipend for each day or portion thereof during which a member is engaged in the performance of official duties.

(2) Performance of official duties is defined as:

(a) Scheduled meetings:

(A) Commission meetings, including special meetings via conference call or video,

(B) Commission committee meetings.

(b) Appointments with Commission staff for commission business;

(c) Legislative testimony; OR

(d) Conferences and activities that the Commission has requested that the member attend as its representative.

(3) Each commission member shall receive a stipend of $155 per day or the current Oregon legislative per diem for each regularly scheduled commission meeting preparation. This compensation is not paid if the Commission member does not attend the meeting for which they have prepared.

Reason for the rules:

1. Rules were not previously promulgated.
2. Clarification needed on compensation.
