

Traditional Health Worker Commission Group Agreements

The following agreements were identified by the group to use during their participation at the retreat and in future commission meetings and gatherings.

1. Invitation for laughter, we agree to laugh and have fun together!
2. Intentionally support different learning styles
3. Participate and be mindful for others to participate as well
4. Believe people's narratives: We agree to believe/acknowledge each other's perspectives, ideas and narratives.
5. Use parking lot to capture ideas and actions
6. Commit to repair work: When our intent and impact do not align, we agree to acknowledge harm, make a commitment to improve and ask what is needed to move forward.
7. I will take care of my own needs and ask for support when needed.
