

Grown In Oregon

Watermelon ranks number 26 of all products grown in Oregon. Melons grow well in the warmer areas of the state, like the (1) Hermiston area, (2) the Snake River Valley and (3) the Medford area. Most of the watermelons grown in Oregon come from Umatilla County where the city of Hermiston is famous for its large, juicy watermelons.

Find It Here

Oregon watermelons are available in grocery stores and at farmers markets and stands in late summer and early fall.
