

BUREAU OF LABOR AND INDUSTRIES
PREVAILING WAGE RATE SEMINARS – FALL 2009
For Contractors, Subcontractors, and Public Agencies

SCHEDULE AND REGISTRATION FORM

The Bureau of Labor and Industries (BOLI) offers Prevailing Wage Rate seminars at no cost to contractors, subcontractors, and public agencies. These classes provide general education in Oregon's prevailing wage rate law specific to your role on a public works project, and will help you understand recent changes to the law. Each session provides an overview of the law, a discussion on how to identify and avoid potential problems, and ample opportunity to ask questions.
