

the sales are to be made from more than one store or sales-room. Such license shall be in effect for one year from January 1 of each year. All such license fees, and the share of all fines paid to said board hereunder, shall be retained and used by the said board in the carrying out and enforcement of this Act except as provided in section 58-571, O.C.L.A.

Section 3. That section 58-568, O.C.L.A., is amended to read as follows:

Sec. 58-568. Only such goods of the class specified in section 58-561, O.C.L.A., shall be sold in this state as specifically identify the manufacturer and the distributor thereof by firm name and address on the appliance and on the container in which the goods are sold or are intended to be sold, whether at wholesale or at retail, nor shall any such goods be sold in this state unless the same shall comply with the standards as to such goods, respecting grade and quality, which may be prescribed by the State Board of Pharmacy and approved by the State Board of Health. Relative to mechanical prophylactics, which includes diaphragms, rubbers and skins, each individual diaphragm, rubber and skin manufactured for sale in Oregon must bear the name and address of the manufacturer and distributor, date of manufacture and brand name.

Section 4. That section 58-571, O.C.L.A., is amended to read as follows:

Sec. 58-571. Any person or persons, firm or corporation, or member of a firm, or officer, director or employe of a corporation, who violates any provisions of this Act shall, upon conviction, be punished by a fine not to exceed $200 and/or shall be imprisoned in a county jail for a period of not more than 60 days.

Approved by the Governor February 28, 1951.
Filed in the office of the Secretary of State February 28, 1951.

AN ACT

[S. B. 1361]

Relating to parole and probation; amending section 26-2308, O.C.L.A.

Be It Enacted by the People of the State of Oregon:

Section 1. Section 26-2308, O.C.L.A., is amended to read as follows:

Sec. 26-2308. The State Board of Parole and Probation, in releasing a person on parole, shall specify in writing the conditions of his parole, and a copy of such conditions shall be given to the person paroled. Whenever the board finds that a prisoner has violated the conditions of his conditional pardon, parole or probation, or whenever the board has been advised in writing by the Governor that the said prisoner has violated the terms of a conditional pardon, the written order of the board shall be sufficient warrant for any law enforcement officer to take into custody such person, and it hereby is made the duty of all sheriffs, police, constables, parole and probation officers, prison officials and other peace officers to execute such order. From and after the cancellation or revocation of the parole, probation or conditional pardon of any convicted person, and until his return to custody, he shall be considered a fugitive from justice. Such prisoner so recommitted must serve out his sentence, and the time during which such prisoner was out on parole shall not be deemed a part thereof, but nothing herein contained shall prevent the State Board of Parole and Probation from again paroling such prisoner at its discretion. It is further provided, that the board may, in its discretion, without first returning a parole violator to the Oregon State Penitentiary, by order duly entered of record, cancel or set aside a revocation of a parole previously issued by it, and by such order admit and restore the parolee to his former parole status.

Approved by the Governor February 28, 1951.
Filed in the office of the Secretary of State February 28, 1951.

CHAPTER 106

AN ACT

[S. B. 1601]

Relating to the use of the shore of the Pacific Ocean; amending section 3, chapter 493, Oregon Laws 1947.

Be It Enacted by the People of the State of Oregon:

Section 1. Section 3, chapter 493, Oregon Laws 1947, is amended to read as follows:

Sec. 3. No sand, rock, marine growth or other natural product of said ocean or beach, other than fish or wild life, agates or souvenirs, shall be taken from such beach, except pursuant to rule, regulation or permit of or from the Oregon State Land Board, as hereinafter provided. Upon request of the county court of any county contiguous to any portion of said ocean shore the Oregon State Land Board may grant permits for
