RULE SUMMARY

This rule revision simplifies the language of our rule by following the statutory language more closely. ORS 144.125(2) and 144.228. The Board's current practice as to murder review hearings, exit interview for pre-1989 crimes, and parole consideration hearings for dangerous offenders will not change. The change clarifies that extended deferral is available for all aggravated murder hearings (regardless of crime commitment date), which is clear in statute but formerly unclear in our rules.

A public rulemaking hearing may be requested in writing by 10 or more people, or by an association with 10 or more members, within 21 days following the publication of the Notice of Proposed Rulemaking in the Oregon Bulletin or 28 days from the date Notice was sent to people on the agency mailing list, whichever is later. If sufficient hearing requests are received, the notice of the date and time of the rulemaking hearing must be published in the Oregon Bulletin at least 14 days before the hearing.

The Agency requests public comment on whether other options should be considered for achieving the rule's substantive goals while reducing negative
