Coming Soon: New Look to the Construction Contractor Board Website

Salem, OR– Oregon Construction Contractors Board (CCB) will soon sport a new website look.

By the end of May 2012, the CCB will make the change using the familiar look that the State of Oregon, the Governor’s website and many other state agencies use.

The CCB’s website address remains the same, though if customers bookmark pages they use frequently, some of those links may change.

“Navigating the CCB website easily remains a high priority,” say Gina Fox, CCB Public Information Officer. “We will continually look for ways to improve using our customer’s feedback.”

The new look is a result of the State of Oregon’s recent contract for many of its e-government services.

The CCB is a state agency licensing more than 39,000 contractors. Anyone who is paid to repair, improve or build a home must be licensed by the CCB. Consumers can verify a contractor’s license and find information for successful projects at www.oregon.gov/CCB . Information is also available by calling 503-378-4621.
