DEFINITIONS: See HRSD State Policy 10.000.01, Definitions; and OAR 105-010-0000

POLICY:

(1) It is the policy of the State of Oregon to recruit competitively for unclassified executive service positions, create diverse applicant pools, and achieve the Affirmative Action goals of the service.

(a) The standard method for filling an unclassified executive service position shall be through a competitive recruitment process.

(A) Unclassified Executive Service is defined in HRSD State Policy 30.000.01, Position Management as positions specified in ORS 240.205 (1), (2), (3), (4) and (5).

(B) Recruitment plans shall include proactive recruitment strategies designed to attract a talented and diverse applicant pool. The recruitment process shall be documented and maintained in the recruitment file.

(i) Proactive steps to develop diverse applicant pools require the use of outreach strategies such as targeted newspapers, professional organizations, employee networks, community organizations, and resume banks.

(ii) Where appropriate, applicant accomplishments in the area of promotion of diversity should be considered in the selection process.

(C) A good faith effort shall be made to have diverse representation on screening and interview panels.

(D) Recruitment efforts for an agency head will be conducted by the Statewide Recruitment Services Section of the Division in conjunction with the agency. The agency may request to conduct the recruitment with oversight by the Statewide Recruitment Services Section of the Division.

(b) The agency head has the delegated authority and discretion to make an appointment to fill an unclassified
Appointment to the Unclassified Executive Service

executive service position provided the criteria listed in (b)(A) or (B) is met.

(A) The appointment must meet one of the following criteria:

(i) A recent competitive recruitment results in no suitable candidates as determined, documented, and certified by the agency head. To be considered recent, a competitive recruitment must have been completed within the previous six (6) months. or

(ii) The appointment is made consistent with a court or administrative order, consent decree, court or administrative settlement, or negotiated tort claim settlement; or

(iii) The position requires special or unique skills at the professional level. Special or unique skills at the professional level are those which require specialized knowledge typically acquired from college coursework at the bachelor degree level or beyond; or

(iv) The position being filled has critical timing requirements affecting recruitment. Critical timing requirements affecting recruitment means that the position is critical to agency operations and there is a demonstrated need to fill the position quickly.

(B) A request for an exception to the standard competitive recruitment method for reasons other than stated in section (b)(A) above shall be submitted to the DAS Director prior to making the appointment.

(c) An appointment to unclassified executive service positions made under Section (1)(b) of this policy shall be documented. The documentation shall be retained for a minimum of three (3) years. The documentation shall cite the applicable criteria, supporting facts, the qualifications of the individual selected, and the agency appointing authority authorization signature. A completed Appointment to Unclassified Executive Service form (an addendum to this policy) with appropriate attachments may serve as such documentation.
