- Publish all courses in SCORM 1.2.
- Publish the score as a percentage (%) instead of the raw score.
- Publish course reporting status as "Complete/Incomplete".
- iLearnOregon logs the # of attempts. Attempts are defined as independent "course completions". All activity in a course which does not complete a course (course stays in "incomplete" status) is defined as the first attempt. Only when the course completes as designed by the authoring tool, does it log as an attempt.
- When a user completes a course make sure that they first click on the authoring tools' "close/exit" button which will close the course but not the pop-up window. In order to close the pop-up window they will then need to click the iLearnOregon "close course" button in the upper right corner of the course window.
