State Chief Operating Officer appoints new leadership team member

Donna Sandoval Bennett will assume post of DAS Human Resource Services Division Administrator

Salem, Oregon — State Chief Operating Officer Michael Jordan has appointed Donna Sandoval Bennett to serve as the Department of Administrative Services, Human Resource Services Division Administrator announced Friday.

Sandoval Bennett will work with staff to develop and implement policy driven services to customers. She will oversee all aspects of state agency human resource policies. She begins this new role November 7, 2011 and report directly to Jordan.

“Donna brings deep knowledge of human resource issues and has established relationships with many agencies we work with on a daily basis,” Jordan said. “She will be an asset as we transition to a customer-oriented business model.”

Sandoval Bennett has almost 10 years of public experience, starting as the human resource director for Crook County and most recently as the Senior Assistant Attorney General with the Department of Justice. Donna has served in various human resource roles across county and state government. Her most recent experience with the Department of Justice includes serving as a legal resource to all state agencies, boards and commissions who required assistance with human resource, personnel and labor-related issues.

Sandoval Bennett has a Juris Doctorate from Northwestern School of Law, and Bachelor and Master Degrees from San Diego State University.
