

Welcome to our new website User friendly, mobile ready.

Smart search helps you find the results you need.

Clean, simple, and responsive for your laptop, tablet, or smartphone.

Find your way with common tasks in menu boxes.

Easy and accessible for all viewers.

Featured information highlights current news, alerts, and services.

Quick links and contact information at the bottom of the pages.

Easy navigation on inside pages.

Quickly find main categories.

Find your way back to previous pages with breadcrumbs.

Click on a symbol in the left navigation panel to reveal more related pages.

Division of Financial Regulation / Get help / Protect your finances

Protect your finances and avoid fraud

- Avoid investment and securities fraud
- Protect your identity
  - What to do if your identity is stolen
  - Phishing schemes
  - Place a credit freeze
- Transmitting money
- Collections and repossession help

Navigating among various mortgages, and debt, and provide individual legal advice, your rights as a consumer can make informed decisions.

Protect your finances
Protecting yourself from identity theft is one of the smartest

Avoid fraud
If an investment offer sounds too good to be true, it probably is.