

NEWS RELEASE

Date: March 3, 2010

Contact: Andrea Cantu-Schomus, 503-947-5027

Headline: OHPB to discuss how to move forward with plan for comprehensive health reform

What: Public meeting of the Oregon Health Policy Board (OHPB)

When: March 9, 2010

Where: Market Square Building, 1515 SW 5th Avenue, 9th floor, Portland, 1 p.m. to 5 p.m.

Live Web streamed at <http://tinyurl.com/ya2c3bm>.

Agenda: Director of DHS and Director Designee of OHA Bruce Goldberg will present the director's report, which will discuss the confirmation of the Medical Liability Taskforce membership, and add several members to the Outcomes Committee. Amy Fauver will then discuss the February legislative session and President Obama's reform proposal. Patty Wentz, director of communications for DHS and OHA, and OHA Community Engagement Coordinator Jeremy Vandehey will share the communications and outreach plan for the Oregon Health Authority. The meeting will then conclude with discussion of standards and next steps for patient-centered primary care, a discussion of the board's alignment and a blueprint for comprehensive health reform.

#