

A Healthy Active Oregon: Statewide Physical Activity and Nutrition Plan 2007-2012
Survey Results of Prioritized Plan Objectives (Fall 2008) Total Respondents = 74

Overall, based on the criteria of feasibility, resources, timing and population impact that you just used, please rank the objectives in the setting of Built Environment in the order of importance:
Answer Options	1st (most important)	2nd (second most important)	3rd (least important)	Response Count
Built Environment Objective I: By 2012, increase from baseline the number of state and local jurisdictions and communities with land use-planning, community design and transportation policies that support environments that encourage daily physical activity, healthy eating and healthy weight.	61	9	4	74
Objective II: By 2012, all communities in the state of Oregon will provide easy access to trails, parks, open spaces and recreational facilities.	8	39	27	74
Objective III: By 2012, all sitting and closure decisions by school districts will consider the impact of those actions on physical activity and healthful eating.	5	26	41	72
answered question				74
skipped question				0

Overall, based on the criteria of feasibility, resources, timing and population impact that you just used, please rank the objectives in the setting of Worksite in the order of importance:
Answer Options	1st (most important)	2nd (second most important)	3rd (third most important)	4th (fourth most important)	Response Count
Worksite Setting Objective I: By 2012, increase by 10 percent the number of worksites with policies and programs that promote and support physical activity and healthy eating for employees and their family members.	40	15	7	8	70
Objective II: By 2012, increase by five percent the number of employees who consume five servings of fruits and vegetables per day.	3	14	21	32	70

A Healthy Active Oregon: Statewide Physical Activity and Nutrition Plan 2007-2012
Survey Results of Prioritized Plan Objectives (Fall 2008) Total Respondents = 74

Objective III: By 2012, increase by five percent the number of employees who are physically active for 30 minutes a day, at least five days a week.	9	22	32	7	70
Objective IV: By 2012, increase by 10 percent the number of employers who offer health care coverage for effective prevention, treatment and management of chronic or obesity-related diseases.	18	19	10	23	70
				answered question	70
				skipped question	4

Overall, based on the criteria of feasibility, resources, timing and population impact that you just used, please rank the objectives in the setting of Health Care System in the order of importance:

Answer Options	1st (most important)	2nd (second most important)	3rd (third most important)	4th (fourth most important)	Response Count
Health Care System Setting
Objective I: By 2012, to increase support for breastfeeding, 15 percent of Oregon birthing hospitals will achieve the World Health Organization designation of Baby-Friendly Hospital, meaning they are centers of breastfeeding support.	31	11	8	19	69
Objective II: By 2012, increase training, education and resources for physicians and primary-care providers that enable providers to help patients achieve and maintain healthy weight through healthy eating and increased physical activity.	10	13	24	22	69
Objective III: By 2012, increase each year the number of health care systems with policies that support physical activity and healthy eating for employees, patients and the community.	16	29	12	12	69
Objective IV: By 2012, increase each year the number of major health plans and insurers that cover obesity prevention and non-surgical treatment.	12	16	24	16	68
				answered question	69
				skipped question	5

A Healthy Active Oregon: Statewide Physical Activity and Nutrition Plan 2007-2012
Survey Results of Prioritized Plan Objectives (Fall 2008) Total Respondents = 74

Overall, based on the criteria of feasibility, resources, timing and population impact that you just used, please rank the objectives in the setting of Schools and Child Care in the order of importance:

Answer Options	1st (most important)	2nd (second most important)	3rd (third most important)	4th (fourth most important)	5th (fifth most important)	Response Count
Schools and Child Care Setting Objective I: By 2010, all school and child care settings will implement policies requiring all food to meet or exceed current USDA Dietary Guidelines for Americans and all serving sizes to be age appropriate.	35	12	13	3	6	69
Objective II: By 2012, all Oregon schools and child care settings will have policies prohibiting fund-raising activities and the marketing of food and beverages that do not support a healthful diet as defined by U.S.D.A. Dietary Guidelines for Americans.	5	17	11	19	17	69
Objective III: By 2010, all child care settings, including preschools, will have policies limiting access to screen time, in accordance with American Academy of Pediatrics recommendations.	5	9	19	17	18	68
Objective IV: Seventy-five percent of schools by 2012 will participate in Farm-to-School programs, including school-based gardens. Efforts will be initiated to increase the participation of care child settings in Farm-to-School programs.	11	11	12	21	14	69
Objective V: By 2012, increase by 10 percent the number of Oregon children and youth ages 2 and older who meet the minimum recommendations for physical activity and education.	13	19	14	9	14	69
answered question						69
skipped question						5

A Healthy Active Oregon: Statewide Physical Activity and Nutrition Plan 2007-2012
Survey Results of Prioritized Plan Objectives (Fall 2008) Total Respondents = 74

Overall, based on the criteria of feasibility, resources, timing and population impact that you just used, please rank the objectives in the setting of Community in the order of importance:
Answer Options	1st (most important)	2nd (second most important)	3rd (third most important)	Response Count
Community Setting Objective I: By 2012, increase from baseline the number of communitywide social marketing campaigns designed to promote daily physical activity, healthy eating, healthy weight, breastfeeding, and the prevention and management of chronic diseases.	23	17	29	69
Objective II: By 2012, increase from baseline the number of physical activity and healthy eating interventions for populations experiencing health disparities.	15	35	19	69
Objective III: By 2012, increase from baseline the number of communities implementing policies and environmental supports for physical activity and healthy eating.	31	17	21	69
answered question				69
skipped question				5

Overall, based on the criteria of feasibility, resources, timing and population impact that you just used, please rank the objectives in the setting of Homes/Households in the order of importance:
Answer Options	1st (most important)	2nd (second most important)	3rd (third most important)	4th (fourth most important)	Response Count
Homes/Households Objective II: By 2012, increase by one percent a year the number of Oregon adults and children who consume five servings of fruits and vegetables per day.	7	27	26	7	67
Objective III: By 2012, increase by five percent the number of Oregon adults and children who meet the recommendation for daily physical activity.	29	20	15	3	67

A Healthy Active Oregon: Statewide Physical Activity and Nutrition Plan 2007-2012
Survey Results of Prioritized Plan Objectives (Fall 2008) Total Respondents = 74

Objective IV: By 2012, decrease television and other screen time for children. Specifically, reduce by two percent the number of children ages 2-18 who have more than two hours a day of screen time and work to ensure children 2 years and younger have no screen time.	7	9	16	35	67
answered question					67
skipped question					7