Subject: Severe weather conditions

Due to the severe weather conditions, some facilities have been or may need to be evacuated. Since State offices are closed over the weekend, if you need to evacuate your building, please contact the following number 503-269-0333. Please leave a message as to the current status of your building evacuation, the name of your building, and a number where we may contact you.

Please check your current evacuation plan to make sure it is up to date and that your evacuation point is still available.
