Guidance for successful resident transitions in Oregon assisted living and residential care.

The Department of Human Services has developed and posted a guide to improve residential care and assisted living service providers' understanding of Oregon regulatory standards that govern resident moves to and from an assisted living facility (ALF) or residential care facility (RCF) community.

The guide was created collaboratively with input from variety of stakeholders including Oregon Department of Human Services, the Office of the Long-term Care Ombudsman, and Oregon Health Care Association. The guidelines were created based upon a review of government regulations, literature review, expert opinions and consensus.

This guide can be viewed and downloaded from the Community Based Care Web site:
