

Adolph W. Wefel
Portland Fire and Rescue
Date of Death: June 1, 1923

Lieutenant Wefel was killed instantly when a brick chimney fell on him answering a call at Benton and Clackamas Streets. Fires had been extinguished in three houses and Wefel was between buildings making sure there were no hidden flames between the walls when the bricks fell without warning.

