

George P. Converse
USDA Forest Service
Year of Death: 1998

George Converse of Oregon was working as a contract helicopter pilot through Heavy Lift Helicopters for the Bureau of Land Management. He and fellow pilot Duane Williams were returning to company headquarters in Apple Valley, CA after fighting wildland fires in Mexico and Florida. The helicopter experienced a blade separation and crashed 25 minutes from its home base in Apple Valley.

