

James S. Baldwin
Portland Fire and Rescue
Date of Death: June 19, 1922

Hoseman Baldwin was electrocuted on June 19, 1922. He entered a smoke filled room and tripped on a light cord which wrapped around his neck when he fell. The wire was common telephone type and sent 600 volts of electricity through his body.

