Overview: Day 1 Thursday June 11, 2015 - 8a to 4:30p "Motivation Through Leadership Effectiveness"
Dr. James T. Reese, PHD

This eight hour, day-long presentation/seminar entitled "MOTIVATION THROUGH LEADERSHIP EFFECTIVENESS" was created by Dr. Reese, following 43 years of providing corporate and law enforcement executive leadership and motivational training, to consolidate and incorporate the foremost principles of MOTIVATION THROUGH LEADERSHIP EFFECTIVENESS and ethical leadership in addition to providing attendees with an awareness of the changes that have affected leadership styles, tactics, and approaches. The instruction offers up-to-date, state-of-the-art principles and guidelines with regard to the skills required of today's leaders. Students will leave this presentation with a renewed sense of the importance of ethical leadership, purpose and proper use of the chain of command, as well as practical and immediately useable information to assist them in mastering improved leadership competencies and attitudes.

The core concepts of this presentation revolve around a triad of "absolutes" concerning ethics and integrity. This triad includes, (1) honor, (2) respect, and (3) service.

BIO: Dr. Reese is an internationally known, award-winning author, motivational speaker, and trainer. Together with serving successfully as CEO of his own training and consulting firm, James T. Reese and Associates, he has been named a Premier Speaker of the National Center for Crisis Management, adjunct faculty of the International Critical Incident Stress Foundation, advisor to the International Association of Ethics Trainers, diplomat of the Society for Police and Criminal Psychology, fellow of the American Academy of Experts in Traumatic Stress, and celebrated as a Distinguished "General Graves B. Erskine Series Lecturer.

Day 2 Friday June 12, 2015 - 8a to 4:30p The Bullet Proof Mind"
U.S. Army Lieutenant Colonel Dave Grossman

This eight hour, day-long presentation/seminar entitled "The Bullet Proof Mind". Police officers and soldiers know all about maintaining physical readiness for combat, but it is the mind that must first be properly prepared, the mind which controls the hands, arms, eyes, and ears. From Lt. Col. Grossman, you'll learn how the body responds to lethal combat, what happens to your blood flow, your muscles, your judgment, memory, vision, and hearing when someone is trying to kill you. You'll learn how to keep going even if you're shot, and how to prepare your mind for survival instead of defeat. Lt. Col. Dave Grossman's training is not merely information - it is armor you'll carry throughout your life.

BIO: A retired U.S. Army Lieutenant Colonel, Dave Grossman is an internationally recognized scholar, author, and speaker who is one of the world's foremost experts in the field of human aggression and the roots of violence and violent crime. He is also one of the nation's leading law enforcement trainers. Dave is a former Army Ranger, West Point psychology professor, and Professor of Military Science who drew on his combined experience to establish a new field of scientific endeavor that he has named "Killology". Overview: This course is designed to provide investigators, command officers, administrators, prosecutors and risk managers the technical information needed to conduct thorough and objective OIS investigations. The primary emphasis is on the identification and anticipation of critical investigative issues and preparation for addressing them. Examples include sources of bias and the effects it can have on the agency's standing and liability; how to deal with the proliferation of video evidence, whether obtained from private or official sources; whether to allow involved officers to view video before, during or after being interviewed; the legality and liability associated with the seizure of privately owned media; when interviews of involved officers should be conducted; and common controversies arising from interpretation errors and the human-factors science that properly explains them.

Two seasoned investigators and expert presenters deliver a mixture of lecture, facilitated discussion, and learning activities that include simulated interviews and the analysis of actual shooting videos. The course is designed to provide an evolutionary leap in the competency of every investigator attending the course.

This course includes:
* Understanding Stakeholders and their objective concerns.
* Avoiding bias in the investigation.
* Criminal and administrative investigation bifurcation issues.
* Elements of lawful force.
* Basic applied forensic human factors.
* Understanding and analyzing video evidence.
* Seizure of video and audio devices.
* Conducting effective interviews of involved officer(s).

By attending this course, you will deepen your understanding of the "big picture," while at the same time increasing your ability to conduct a competent, legal investigation where the rights of all parties are upheld. This is a nuts-and-bolts course that provides you with advanced methods of getting the best investigation possible, an investigation that will withstand any scrutiny from any source in the future.

Our students claim they received more in this intense sixteen-hour class than in 40 hours in others. Let us prove it to you!

Overview: The VTTX is a series of discussion-based Virtual Tabletop Exercises (VTTX) offered monthly by FEMA’s Emergency Management Institute (EMI), located in Emmitsburg MD to your location using a video teleconference platform. The VTTX process involves key personnel from the emergency management community of practice reviewing a pre-packaged set of exercise materials (Situation Manual and Power Point slide presentation) then convening for a four hour tabletop exercise discussing a simulated disaster scenario with a total of 10 to 15 sites. These events allows the connected sites to assess current plans, policies and procedures while learning from the other connected sites as they provide their perspective and practice facing a similar situation. A standard VTC system is required for participation. There is no cost for this program, what is required at the learning site, is a POC (or facilitator) that will guide the discussions. 10-15 remote "Participating" sites are set per event due to time constraints. The program also allows for some additional "Observation" sites for each event to become familiar with the VTTX process. The VTTX is designed for a community-based group of 12 or more whole community representatives from your local Emergency Management Community of Practice.

This virtual tabletop exercise will enable the participants to exercise their knowledge, skills, and abilities needed to effectively conduct all-hazards emergency preparedness, response and recovery. There is no cost to participate and each date listed below is one offering of the applicable VTTX.

The VTTX program goals include:
1) Prepare participants for a designated hazard or disaster affecting their community.

3) Allow communities to practice using their VTC technology to test policy, plans and procedures.
4) Provide a virtual, experiential education environment to exercise and enhance critical response and recovery tasks.

Monthly events and multiple offerings are announced via EMI’s home page located at www.Training.fema.gov

Scenarios include: floods, active shooters, chlorine response, building collapse, long and short term recovery actions, agriculture, radiological, pandemic flu (health) and others developed by request.

Instructors: MARS Group, LLC

Overview: Utilizing the latest updates to the MARCH protocol for trauma patient assessment, we focus on the five (5) basic steps to save or extend life and the six (6) procedures that are performed with those five steps. MARS Group, LLC has refined the medical procedures taught in TCCC/TECC while working on a three year medical study with the Department of Defense (DOD) and University of Minnesota. MARS Group LLC is the first agency to use these updated teaching techniques which were developed to directly promote long term retention of tactical emergency medical training. MARS Group uses a scripted dialogue and each instructor leads his group by working alongside to guide or assist at any moment. Our technique, combined with one of the most anatomically correct simulation manikins, provides realism that rivals working on a real person or live tissue.

Our standard Enhanced Critical Care course utilizes a 5:1 student to instructor ratio. The course is provided in an accelerated format while providing eight hours of material covered. The key to this accelerated learning format is the repetition of procedures, the realism of the medical simulation, and the 1 on 1 instruction each student receives. For every situation the tactics or a person’s actions may change at a moment’s notice; the medicine performed does not.

The cornerstone for our Enhance Critical Care course (ECC) is the Tactical Combat Casualty Care (TCCC) principles adopted by the DOD. Additionally, MARS Group-ECC recognizes the tactical emergency medical procedures endorsed by the Tactical Emergency Casualty Care (TECC) Committee that are currently instructed throughout various municipalities across the country.

Instructors: MARS Group, LLC. Instructors are hand selected by the owners and are former Special Operations Medics that were assigned to either Special Forces or a Ranger Battalion. Randy Kerlee is a Retired Special Forces Senior Medic and Medical Operations Master Sergeant who is currently attending Physicians Assistant School at the University of Washington. Joey Ramos is a former Special Operations Medic that was assigned to 2nd Ranger Battalion and other Tier One assets. As the owners they hold themselves to the highest possible standards and demand the same from their instructors.

A DPSST F6 will be completed at the conclusion of the training.

To provide emergency responders with the first nationwide, high-speed, wireless broadband network dedicated to public safety Who Should Attend The workshop events are intended for agency personnel with sufficient authority to speak for the agency in planning purposes and for those that will be designated to perform requested information input through an online survey tool.

Class Title: FEMA Virtual Tabletop Exercise Program

Target Audience: Federal, State, Local, Tribal, and Private Sector First Responders.

Sponsoring Agency: Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA)

When: 8/25-8/27/2015

Overview: The VTTX is a series of discussion-based Virtual Tabletop Exercises (VTTX) offered monthly by FEMA’s Emergency Management Institute (EMI), located in Emmitsburg MD to your location using a video teleconference platform. The VTTX process involves key personnel from the emergency management community of practice reviewing a pre-packaged set of exercise materials (Situation Manual and PowerPoint slide presentation) then convening for a four hour tabletop exercise discussing a simulated disaster scenario with a total of 10 to 15 sites. These events allows the connected sites to assess current plans, policies and procedures while learning from the other connected sites as they provide their perspective and practice facing a similar situation. A standard VTC system is required for participation. There is no cost for this program, what is required at the learning site, is a POC (or facilitator) that will guide the discussions. 10-15 remote "Participating" sites are set per event due to time constraints. The program also allows for some additional "Observation" sites for each event to become familiar with the VTTX process. The VTTX is designed for a community-based group of 12 or more whole community representatives from your local Emergency Management Community of Practice.

This virtual tabletop exercise will enable the participants to exercise their knowledge, skills, and abilities needed to effectively conduct all-hazards emergency preparedness, response and recovery. There is no cost to participate and each date listed below is one offering of the applicable VTTX.

The VTTX program goals include:
1) Prepare participants for a designated hazard or disaster affecting their community.
2) Enable participants to better coordinate their response operations with counterparts from local governments, other State governments, Federal agencies, private sector organizations, and nongovernmental agencies.
3) Allow communities to practice using their VTC technology to test policy, plans and procedures.
4) Provide a virtual, experiential education environment to exercise and enhance critical response and recovery tasks.

Monthly events and multiple offerings are announced via EMI’s home page located at www.Training.fema.gov

Scenarios include: floods, active shooters, chlorine response, building collapse, long and short term recovery actions, agriculture, radiological, pandemic flu (health) and others developed by request.

Instructors: Coordinators: Sgt. Ben Ward and Gerod Rayburn

Overview: DPSST is offering a 16 hour Ground Fighting course: The focus of this course will be on techniques to survive and win ground assaults with an emphasis of getting back to a standing position. With changes in threat skill and behaviors due to the rise in popularity of MMA, this course will be taught to help an officer survive, not better their sport skills. This course will cover striking from ground positions, accessing and managing weapons from the ground, arrest and control techniques from the ground, takedowns and takedown defense. This course will involve a lot of drilling and is physically strenuous and demanding. Participants must not have any injuries that would prevent full participation.

Pre-Requisites/Considerations:
1. The course will run from 0800 to 1700 hours each day, with a one-hour lunch break. You must attend both 8-hour days in order to receive credit for the course.
2. You must be in a good physical condition, with no injuries or physical limitations that would prevent full participation.
3. This is an instructor level course. Participants must be certified DT Instructors.

This course is extremely physically and mentally demanding. Participants have found that extra changes of clothing and fuel food has made the day more comfortable. Participants must not have any injuries that would prevent full participation. Participants must demonstrate the ability to perform and instruct specific objectives and/or concepts to successfully complete this course.

REQUIRED EQUIPMENT:
T-shirts or polo shirts, Dri-Fit style works the best. Loose fitting long pants or MMA or Board shorts (mid-thigh length only, no metal buttons or snaps) Non-marking shoes for mat work. If you plan to utilize the Academy dining facility you must wear appropriate attire. The minimum requirement is departmental shirt, duty or BDU pants (no jeans) and duty foot wear.

DT IDC CHANGE
DPSST will be changing their requirements for the Defensive Tactics (DT) Instructor Development Course (IDC). The former two week, 80 hour, course will be condensed to a one week, 40 hour week of course work.

In the past, DPSST has offered the 80 hour DT IDC and required 40 more hours of shadow time to be certified to teach DTs at DPSST. Experience has shown that it has been difficult for officers and deputies to be away from their agency for two full weeks. Likewise, it has been difficult to find room in our basic schedules for two weeks when no basic classes are being instructed.

The offering of a 40 hour DT IDC will give students all of the requisite basics to return to their agency and instruct defensive tactics. Additionally, it will give DPSST more opportunities to offer the IDC multiple times each year, as opposed to only once.

Additionally, DPSST will be offering 6 two day (16 hour) modules of additional defensive tactics for instructors. Completion of the 40 hour DT IDC or the past 80 hour IDC will be a pre-requisite to attend any of the "continuing education" modules. The modules do not have to be taken in any particular order. The subject of the modules will be: Arrest and Control Trainer, Ground Defense Trainer, In Fight Weapons Access, Use of Force Law Trainer, Law Enforcement Athlete Trainer, and Strike/Counter Striking. Instructors will be required to maintain their certification level by attending at a minimum one 2 day module of their choosing once per year.

DPSST is establishing the following DT Trainer and Instructor ratings:

Trainer Level One (56 hours) Basic 40 hour DT IDC plus one 16 hour module (Eligible to instruct DTs at DPSST with 3 years of law enforcement experience)

Trainer Level Two (72 hours) Basic 40 hour DT IDC plus two 16 hour modules

Instructor (104 hours) Basic 40 hour DT IDC plus four 16 hour modules

Master Instructor (136) Basic 40 hour DT IDC plus six 16 hour modules

Master Survival Skills Instructor (256) Basic 40 hour DT IDC plus six 16 hour modules, plus Confrontation Simulation IDC, plus DPSST Firearms IDC or equivalent 80 hour certification(s)
Class Title: Ground Fighting - 16 Hour Update

DPSST will grandfather those DT instructors who have attended the 80 hour course and are certified to teach at the Academy. It will be required that all DT certified instructors attend a minimum of one DT training module each year to maintain their current authorizations.

Registration Deadline:

Contact: Dep. Chris Cypert; 503-576-7123;
Hours: 0800-1700

Cost: $250 - for IALEFI members/$305 for Non members

Overview:

The IALEFI Master Instructor Development Program (MIDP) was designed to provide continuing education to individuals certified as firearms instructors. Foundation courses of the MIDP include instructor level training on the three most commonly utilized law enforcement weapon systems---------handgun, rifle and shotgun.

Different proven methodologies will be used to enhance the teaching skills of the police firearms instructor. Hands-on skills will progress from the basics to the more complex and all participants regardless of skill level will find themselves challenged. Practical exercise will put an emphasis on both practical marksmanship and operational skills.

Throughout the 3 day program, participants will be shown a number of drills designed to improve the performance of both proficient and problem shooters. The information presented will prove especially useful in creating a positive training experience that will ultimately result in greater officer safety.

Topics covered:
* range safety
* review of shooting fundamentals/positions
* operational skills
* basic tactics such as movement, use of cover, light management, etc.
* shooter remediation
* adult learning concepts
* coaching strategies
* course design

The Handgun This will be a handgun course aimed at building the Instructional skills of the police firearms instructor. We will start with a review and discussion of the basics, including: stance, grip, sight, alignment, trigger control, follow through, holster placement, draw, presentation and scanning. Students will then be shown a series of drills and tools designed to improve problem shooters and enhance the skills of all their shooters.

The Rifle The rifle / carbine portion of the Master Instructor Development Course is an 8-hour class. In Class Title: IALEFI Master Instructor Development Course

The first half of the class emphasis will be placed on individual skill enhancement. Topics will include balancing speed and accuracy, multiple target engagements, dynamic moving and shooting, and bilateral shooting. In the second half of the course, the emphasis will be on instructor development for creating and conducting advance tactical multi-person live fire drills for the rifle / carbine operators. Students will participate in the drills as both a "student" and as an "instructor".

The Shotgun: Despite its tremendous utility value, the shotgun remains an underutilized and misunderstood tool. Many of the negative attitudes relative to the shotgun stem from improper training, and as a result officers never develop confidence in this particular weapon system. This block of instruction will explore alternate instructional techniques to make training with the shotgun a positive rather than negative experience.

Supplies/Equipment Needed:
1) Pistol and holster, 400 rounds, and 10 dummy rounds
2) Semi-auto rifle with a sling, 300 rounds and 3 magazines

Instructors: Force Science Institute

Overview: This program, created and instructed exclusively by the Force Science Institute, is designed to clearly present, in a practical and understandable fashion, the results of the most cutting edge research into the dynamics of human behavior during life-threatening encounters.

The class will explore Force Science, the application of unbiased scientific principles and processes in repetitive physical experiments designed to determine the true nature of suspect provocation and officer response (action-reaction dynamics). The goal of the program is to encourage law enforcement professionals to apply the important concepts revealed in this research when investigating, reconstructing, recalling or otherwise analyzing a use of force. The integration of this information has been proven to enhance the accuracy and thoroughness of decisions made relative to behavior and performance during the incident.

The Force Science Institute uses sophisticated time-and-motion measurements to document—often for the first time—critical hidden truths about the physical and mental dynamics of life-threatening events, particularly officer-involved shootings. Its startling findings profoundly impact officer training and safety, and the public's naive perceptions. In fact, the Institute's findings have been directly credited with saving officer lives on the street and with preventing some officers from going to prison after being wrongly accused of criminally using deadly force.

Instructor: Force Science Basics courses, offered exclusively by the Force Science Institute, are conducted by elite, highly specialized instructors who have been personally trained by FSI Executive Director Dr. Bill Lewinski and the Force Science team of experts.

Instructors: Sgt. Evan Sether - Oregon State Police / DRE State Coordinator and other assigned instructors

Overview: The Oregon Drug Evaluation Classification (DEC) Program has received national acclaim for its success in identifying the drug-impaired driver. Officers trained as Drug Recognition Experts (DREs) are frequently called upon to differentiate between drug influence and medical and/or mental disorders. The certified DRE is an extremely valuable tool in combating the adverse impact of drug and alcohol impaired driving in our communities.

DRE School is extremely demanding. To receive certification as a DRE, three phases of training must be completed. The following summarizes each phase:

ACADEMIC TRAINING (Phase I & II): This phase is typically conducted over nine days (72 hours). It includes courses in physiology, vital signs, standardized field sobriety testing (SFST), and extensive material on each of the seven categories of the drugs of abuse. The training includes three written examinations, an SFST proficiency examination and five written quizzes. Students must achieve a minimum of 80% on all quizzes and examinations, and must demonstrate 100% proficiency in administering SFST’s. Students not demonstrating 100% proficiency in SFSTs will be dismissed from class.

CERTIFICATION PHASE (Phase III): After successfully completing the academic portion, the students must complete the certification phase. Certification Training will take place on September 16th-20th and again 23rd-27th in Portland, OR. (Note: If the class size is limited to 12 students, only one week of Certification Training will be run) The class will be split in half and each student will be required to attend one full week, not both. This is an additional five days of training after phase 1 & 2. At this time, the above certification dates are the only dates available in Oregon for 2015. With the recommendation of the DRE State Coordinator, out of state certification training is an option, but will be at the expense of the student's agency. It is the student's responsibility to attend and complete the certification requirements within six months following DRE School. The requirements include: conducting a minimum of 12 drug influence evaluations while under the supervision of a DRE instructor; identifying subjects under the influence, and attaining an 80% toxicological confirmation rate. Written reports will be submitted to the DRE instructor observing the evaluation for review and approval. In addition, the student must obtain an accurate progress certification log, DRE rolling log and submit a curriculum vitae. Lastly, the student must pass a comprehensive final knowledge examination, and obtain the written endorsement from two certified DRE instructors and the DRE State Coordinator before obtaining certification and IACP credentials.

The International Association of Chiefs of Police (IACP) and the Oregon DECP Policies and Procedures are the regulating body for Oregon's DEC Program. Certification and credentials are valid for two years. In order to maintain certification, DRE's must conduct a minimum of four evaluations (one observed in front of an instructor) every two years, submit an updated rolling log and curriculum vitae, and attend a minimum of 8-hours of recertification training.

To be considered for DRE training, the applicant must meet the following criteria:

*Must have a minimum of two years of law enforcement service.
*Must be off probation with your agency.
*Must be working in patrol with your agency.
*Must be SFST, D.I.D. (Drugs That Impair Driving) and Intoxilyzer 8000 certified.

WHAT IS THE BELOW 100 PROGRAM? The Below 100 program was created by Law Officer Magazine. Below 100 is an initiative that aims to reduce the line of duty deaths to below 100, a number not seen since 1943. We've averaged about 150 officers killed per year in the last ten years. Together, we can bring that number to below 100. We have identified five key tenets by which we can improve officer safety-areas where we can make a difference. Below 100 isn't about statistics. It's about each and every officer, trainer and supervisor taking individual and collective responsibility for the decisions and actions that contribute to safety.

For those in a leadership position, Below 100 means supporting a culture of safety throughout your department. Make doing the right thing so ingrained in your personnel that it becomes the norm and not the exception. Law Officer Magazine is committed to providing you the tools and resources you need to make a culture of safety thrive throughout your department.

Finally, Below 100 is a challenge that recognizes each officer death as a tragedy. It's our duty to face down death and protect the innocent when called to do so. It's a fact: Good cops will die each year. But working together-and only by working together-we can keep our streets and ourselves safer.

INSTRUCTORS: Dale Stockton/Steve West
Dale Stockton is a retired Captain of Carlsbad Police Department in Southern California, national core Instructor and a sitting board member of Below 100, and is widely known as the architect for Below 100. Steve West is a Lieutenant for the California Highway Patrol (CHP), a Below 100 national Core instructor and a sitting board member of Below 100.

Overview: The Reno Police Training Officer (PTO) model is based on the teaching principles of Problem-Based Learning (PBL) and emphasizes the need for the PTO to function primarily as a trainer rather than as an evaluator. PBL is firmly established in the fields of medicine and education, where it is used to facilitate the transfer of knowledge. Similarly, in policing, recruits need to learn much more than just laws and police procedures. They must also understand how to transfer their academy knowledge effectively when dealing with individuals and issues within a community. As demands on police continue to increase, agencies must provide officers with the resources and the training necessary to fulfill their expanded role. This approach will help police recruits think about their roles and responsibilities as they approach specific problems in their daily work. Problem solving is an integral part of police work and requires a creative and flexible method of thinking. The PBL model encourages flexibility and creativity and this training model is designed to emphasize community-oriented policing principles and leadership development and train new recruits to be problem-solvers as they enter the field. This model is adaptable to any discipline within the criminal justice system (Corrections, P & P, etc.).
