

Exploring Oregon's Native Plants

An Educator's Workshop Focused on Place-based Learning

Saturday
March 10, 2012

Time: 9:00 am to 3:30 pm

Location: South Slough
Interpretive Center, 4 miles south on Seven
Devils Road,
Charleston, OR

Cost: Free

Preregistration Required

Registration closes March 1

joy.tally@state.or.us

or

541-888-5558 ext. 27

Who should attend:

Teachers, natural resource agency staff, home school instructors, and informal educators that work with middle and high school students in outdoor settings.

What will you learn:

- ◆ How to identify local native plants, plant ecology, and the future of Oregon's native plants
- ◆ Introduction to the NEW curriculum: From Salmonberry to Sagebrush, Exploring Oregon's Native Plants
- ◆ Experience many hands-on lessons designed to engage students

What to bring:

- ◆ Appropriate clothing and footwear for the weather (we will go outside!)
- ◆ Your own beverage mug
- ◆ Your curiosity!

Workshop Attendees Receive:

- ☑ BRAND NEW! From Salmonberry to Sagebrush, Exploring Oregon's Native Plants, 331 page curriculum
- ☑ Lunch provided

Offered in partnership with the following organizations:

