ARBITRATOR

SCHEDULE OF FEES AND EXPENSES

Effective: January 1, 2009

PER DIEM

$1250 plus expenses

TRAVEL OUTSIDE SEATTLE METROPOLITAN AREA

$1250 per day for time spent in travel during the normal work day. If only a part of the day is spent in travel, only the percentage of that day so spent will be billed. For example, one-half day spent in travel will be billed at $625.

$625 per day for time spent in travel outside the normal work day. If only part of a day is spent in travel, only the percentage of the day so spent will be billed. For example, one-half day spent in travel outside the normal work day will be billed at $312.50.

CANCELLATION FEES

A one-half-day fee ($625) will be charged when a hearing is cancelled between 31 and 60 calendar days of its scheduled commencement.

A one-day fee ($1250) will be charged when a hearing is cancelled within 30 calendar days of its scheduled commencement.

The cancellation fee will apply separately for each day which has been reserved for hearing. Cancellation charges of airlines and hotels resulting from hearing days being postponed or cancelled shall be charged as incurred.

POSTPONEMENT FEES

No postponement fee will be charged if the postponement is requested more than 60 calendar days prior to the scheduled hearing date. If the hearing is postponed within 60 calendar days of the scheduled hearing, then a postponement fee will not be charged if the hearing is rescheduled for a date certain either at the time of the postponement request or within the following two weeks, and the hearing is thereafter held on the selected date. Postponements not meeting the above criteria will be billed in accordance with the cancellation fee schedule.

OTHER EXPENSES

Hotel, meals, transportation, and other costs will be billed.

CAVEAT

In accepting the services of the Arbitrator, the parties assume joint and several liability for payment of the arbitrator's fees and expenses, any agreement for contribution or indemnification between them, or between one or more of them and any third party, notwithstanding.
