Subject: Chili Competitors - Just a note for Thursday

CFD TEAM: I will be setting up the conference room on Thursday, 10/24 at 10:00 am, so if you can help me shuffle tables that would be awesome

COMPETITORS: Hi folks – so glad you are competing this week!

We will have a table ready for each competitor to set up a crockpot of their chili probably around 10:30. You can bring your crockpot at any time from then on but individuals will invited in to sample from 11:30 am to 12:45 pm. I will be providing the sample bowls for each of you to dish your chili into.

FOR SAMPLES, please don't provide a sample to someone unless that someone provides you a ticket. We are selling tickets for the samples - $2.00 each or 3 for $5.00.

You will be provided with a ticket box to put the tickets in and the person with the most tickets at 12:45 wins the $25 gift card.

To make the competition FUN, you have free reign at your table (within professional reason). If you want to provide more than chili to coax people to sample your chili versus other chili, feel free to do so. If you want to decorate your table, please feel free to do that too. Whatever trouble you want to go to, including no trouble at all, is perfectly fine.

Thanks so much again for your participation – it's for a great cause ☺
