

OCHA Work Planning Session

Dec 13, 2013

GOALS:

- Conduct environmental scan, building a shared understanding of 2014 political landscape and its advocacy opportunities
- Develop a 2014 workplan, identifying goals, priority issues, outcomes and core activities

PROPOSED AGENDA:

12nn            Working Lunch & Welcome

12:15           Goal-setting & Agenda

12:20           2014 Environmental Scan

We will listen to summaries as well as share key information that highlight the strategic direction and priorities of key organizational partners in order to understand the political, economic and cultural conditions shaping advocacy work in 2014. This discussion will also include results of a community survey conducted by OCHA leadership and a report on the 2013 accomplishments of OCHA. These data shall serve as the foundation to build on and the parameters shaping the capacity of the commission moving forward.

12:50 pm       Constructing the Workplan

Commissioners will discuss and outline priority focus areas for their 2014 work and brainstorm the list of possible advocacy initiatives and efforts.

1:00 pm        Discussion about partnering opportunities: Fariborz Pakseresht, Director, Oregon Youth Authority; and Maria Chavez-Haroldson, Associate Director, Center for Latino Studies and Engagement (CL@SE) at Oregon State University

1:15 pm        Constructing the Workplan, continued

1:30 pm        Deliberate & Decide

Commissioners will develop criteria that will help them deliberate and decide which advocacy efforts OCHA should (1) track and monitor, (2) link and support, and/or (3) lead and prioritize in alignment with established OCHA values, priorities and viability.

2:30 Break

2:45pm Crafting Objectives & Outcomes for Organizational Development

This discussion will focus on increasing the capacity of the OCHA commission and include outlining a strategy/ campaign for increasing/ restoring OCHA resources.

3:45pm Synthesis & Next Steps

4:00pm End