Item 1  Approve Agenda

Item 2  Request to Appeal
State law requires commission approval of a DLCD director’s decision to seek review of a local government land use decision. Only the director or department staff on the director’s behalf, the applicant, and the affected local government may submit written or oral testimony concerning commission approval of a director’s recommendation to file or pursue an appeal, or intervention in an appeal, of a land use decision, expedited land division, or limited land use decision.

Item 3  Metro Urban and Rural Reserves Remand
The commission will receive a status report and department recommendation to respond to the Court of Appeals’ final appellate judgment (reversing and remanding the commission’s approval of the Metro urban and rural reserve submittal) by establishing a schedule for the parties to brief the commission on the remand issues.

Action

Oregon’s seven-member Land Conservation and development Commission, assisted by the Department of Land Conservation and Development, adopts state land use goals, assures local plan compliance with the goals, coordinates state and local planning and manages the coastal zone program. Commissioners are unpaid citizen volunteers appointed by the Governor and confirmed by the Senate. Commissioners are appointed to four-year terms and may not serve for more than two consecutive terms. The statute establishing the commission, ORS chapter 197, also directs that members be representative of the state. The commission meets approximately every two months to conduct its business and direct the work of the department.
Current Commissioners:
Melissa Cribbins (Coos Bay)
Robin McArthur (Portland)
Bart Eberwein (Portland)
Greg Macpherson, Chair (Lake Oswego)
Sherman Lamb (Talent)
Catherine Morrow (Bend)
Jerry Lidz, Vice-chair (Eugene)

The meeting location is accessible to persons with disabilities.
