- 2. Other. The commission reserves this time, if needed, for other business or for further consideration of any item on the agenda.

Oregon's seven-member Land Conservation and Development Commission, assisted by the Department of Land Conservation and Development, adopts state land use goals, assures local plan compliance with the goals, coordinates state and local planning, and manages the coastal zone program. Commissioners are unpaid citizen volunteers appointed by the governor and confirmed by the senate. Commissioners are appointed to four-year terms and may not serve for more than two consecutive terms. The statute establishing the commission, ORS chapter 197, also directs that members be representative of the state. The commission meets approximately every six weeks to direct the work of the department.
