IN THE MATTER OF

2006-5012 Sarah Condreay, CCA Applicant

Dr. Vissers moved to withdraw the Board's previous denial of certification. Dr. Guerrero seconded the motion. Megehee, aye; Koc, aye; Vissers, aye; Guerrero, aye; Parker-Kent, aye; and McClure abstained.

The Board authorizes a settlement of the CA applicant's with stipulations to notify the employing DC of prior convictions, plus a one-year probation all in favor. Michael Vissers moved to accept the Board's determination; Minga Guerrero seconded the motion. Megehee, aye; Koc, aye; Guerrero, aye; Vissers, aye; Parker-Kent, aye; and McClure abstained.

2006-1002

First motion: The Board determined to close the case and issue a strongly-worded letter of concern. Michael Vissers moved to accept this determination; Joyce McClure seconded the motion. Parker-Kent, aye; Megehee, aye; Guerrero, aye; Vissers, aye; McClure, aye; and Koc recused.

Second motion: Minga Guerrero made a motion that under the provisions of ORS 676.175 (2)(a), the OBCE finds that the public interest in disclosure of relevant information (i.e. pages one through nine of the Peer Review report and the resultant Letter of Concern) obtained during the course of the investigation into Case # 2006-1002 outweighs the private interest in non-disclosure. Any reference to the identity of the complainant or patient will be redacted and not disclosed. Parker-Kent seconded the motion. Guerrero, aye; Vissers, aye; McClure, aye; Parker-Kent, aye; Megehee, aye; and Koc recused.

2006-5005 Lance Hatch, DC

The Board had issued a Notice of Revocation (November 2007), but we have not yet heard from the licensee. Considering the circumstances, the Board agreed to hold issuing the Order by Default until the last day of January 2007. Dr. Guerrero moved to accept the Board's determination; Dr. McClure seconded the motion. Parker-Kent, aye; Koc, aye; Guerrero, aye; Vissers, aye; McClure, aye; and Megehee recused.

2006-2004

The Board found no statutory violation. Vissers moved to accept the board's determination; Guerrero seconded the motion. McClure, aye; Parker-Kent, aye; Vissers, aye; Guerrero, aye; Megehee, aye; and Steve Koc recused.
