Public Notice

TO: Interested Stakeholders

FROM: Oregon Board of Chiropractic Examiners
Cassandra McLeod-Skinner, Executive Director

DATE: November 20, 2017

RE: Rules Advisory Committee call for Massage Therapist Participants
To Review Proposed Tiered Chiropractic Assistant (CA) Certification Program

Goal: Work on existing draft concept and/or edit proposed language that may create a tiered structure for CA certification. A first draft of the proposed language is attached.

Stakeholders:

This call is intended to broaden participation in this rules advisory committee; presently there are nine members – one CA, one LMT and seven chiropractors. The Board of Chiropractic Examiners will select new participants at its January 25-26, 2018 meeting.

If you are interested in participating in the OBCE's rules advisory committee, we ask you to submit a letter of interest to the OBCE by Friday, December 29, 2017. Your letter of interest should highlight your qualifications and/or expertise in this area, and a brief comment why you are interested in this subject area. Please provide an updated copy of your curriculum vitae or resume.

Persons specifically applying as a representative of an interested organization should submit their letter on that organization's letterhead.

Meetings will be held in the Salem or Portland area, but calling in will be an option. The meetings are approximately 2-3 hours in length. Interested persons should be willing to work within these parameters.

Interested persons should submit Letters and CVs to the OBCE by mail, email, or FAX.

3218 Pringle Road SE, Suite 150, Salem, OR 97302.
