

Tumor Boards: Sometimes referred to as chart rounds or cancer conferences, tumor boards are limited to a maximum of 12 credits per biennium. Tumor boards are typically a general review of a specific tumor to include anatomy, physiology, pathology, symptoms, and treatment options. CE credit is not to be awarded for activities during which the treatment plan for a specific individual is discussed.