

David Yuen Tam is the President of Tam Global Consultants a Eugene, Oregon based company. He is a professional consultant specializing in renewable energy technologies, sustainable business development, sustainable real estate consultant and investor who possess over 20 years of experience helping U.S. and international firms grow and expand their business. Tam Global Consultants help provide relevant and up-to-date information pertaining to the various aspects of business development and market information for global companies.

Mr. Tam has been consulting businesses since 1995 on a variety of different levels such as real estate development projects, manufacturing, marketing, government contracts, investor identification, merger and acquisition, grant funding, management of cross cultural and cross border teams, performance improvement, business restructure, global market entry and expansion as well as many other global business challenges that business face.

Mr. Tam along with his son, Liam are long-time residents of Eugene. He is passionate about many organizations and is a member of:

City of Eugene Sustainability Commission
Advisory Chair CEO Network – University of Oregon Business School Diversity Program
Past President of the Eugene/Springfield Asian Council
Past President of the Eugene/Springfield Chinese American Benevolent Association
Advisory Chair to Willamette University Center for Asian Studies
Chairman of the Oregon Asian Celebration
Advisory Board of Directors for Committed Partners for Youth/Big Brother Big Sister of Lane County
Relief Nursery
Past Advisory for DisOrient Film Festival