

Where do you live? Can you find your county on the map?

Does your county rate high in agricultural production?

As you ride in the car, what kind of plants and animals do you see growing on Oregon farm land?

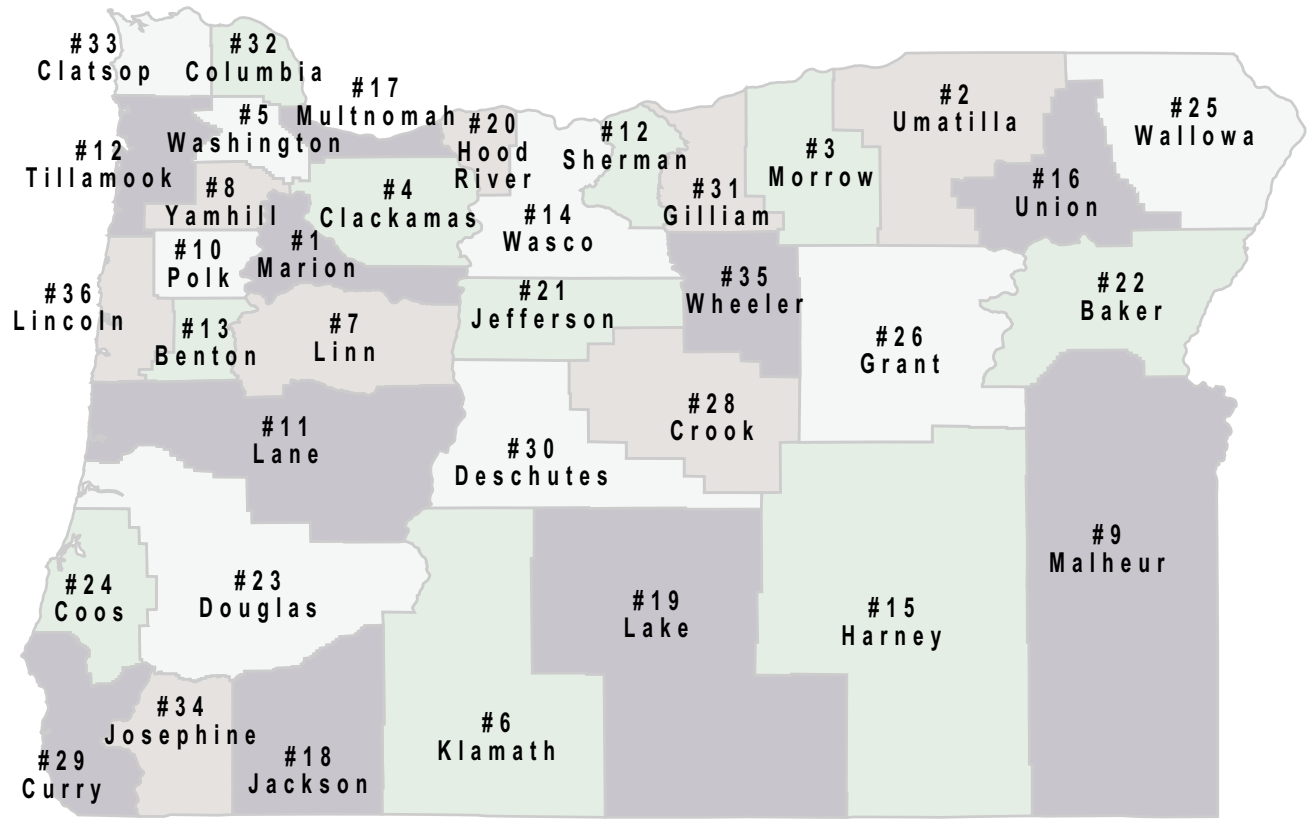

If you could prepare a very special dinner made with Oregon-grown products, what would be on the menu?

Mom wants to make some pear butter like grandma's. Where could you go to pick Oregon's state fruit for mom?

Oregon Agriculture: A $4.9 billion industry statewide

Oregon counties ranked by farm and ranch sales

Greenhouse	Gross sales	Pears	Tons	Potatoes	Cwt
Clackamas	$195,775,000	Hood River	159,616	Morrow	7,670,000
Marion	$192,811,000	Jackson	65,050	Umatilla	7,375,000
Washington	$168,295,000	Wasco	5,460	Klamath	2,507,000
Yamhill	$123,920,000	Marion	968	Baker	1,900,000
Cattle & calves	Number	Caneberries	Gross sales	Wheat	Bushels
Malheur	181,300	Marion	$15,918,000	Umatilla	17,023,800
Morrow	119,700	Clackamas	$13,968,000	Morrow	5,425,100
Harney	109,800	Washington	$8,955,000	Sherman	4,779,600
Klamath	83,600	Multnomah	$3,650,000	Malheur	3,810,200

Oregon's top 10 Ag commodities

1. Greenhouse & nursery products
2. Hay
3. Grass seed
4. Cattle & calves
5. Milk
6. Wheat
7. Potatoes
8. Christmas trees
9. Onions
10. Pears

Oregon ranks first in the USA in the production of...

Blackberries	Fescue seed
Hazelnuts	Boysenberries
Loganberries	Sugarbeets for seed
Black raspberries	Red clover seed
Ryegrass seed	Potted florist azaleas
Orchardgrass seed	Christmas trees
Crimson clover	Dungeness crab

Top 10 Oregon exports

Wheat and products _____	$239,065,000
Seeds _____	$174,300,000
Fruits and preparations _____	$170,600,000
Vegetables and preparations _____	$145,300,000
Tree nuts _____	$52,200,000
Nursery products _____	$49,400,000
Hides and skins _____	$23,600,000
Animals _____	$17,600,000
Feed and fodders _____	$16,600,000
Christmas trees _____	$15,300,000

Grown in Oregon

Alfalfa	Flounder	Prunes and plums
Alpacas	Flower bulbs	Pumpkins
Apples	Flowering trees	Quail
Apricots	Flowers	Rabbits
Artichokes	Foliage plants	Radishes
Asparagus	Game birds	Raspberries
Barley	Garlic	Red snapper
Bass	Ginseng	Reed Canarygrass seed
Beans	Goats	Rheas
Bedding plants	Gooseberries	Rhubarb
Bees	Grapes	Rockfish
Beets	Greenhouse crops	Rutabagas
Bentgrass seed	Greens	Rye
Birdsfoot trefoil seed	Halibut	Ryegrass seed
Blackberries	Hazelnuts	Safflower
Blueberries	Herbs	Salmon
Boysenberries	Hogs and pigs	Shad
Broccoli	Hops	Sheep and lambs
Brussel sprouts	Horseradish	Shrimp
Buckwheat	Kale	Shrubs
Cabbage	Kentucky bluegrass seed	Silage
Canola oil	Kiwifruit	Smelt
Cantaloupes	Lentils	Sod
Carrots	Lettuce	Sorghum
Cattle and calves	Llamas	Soybeans
Cauliflower	Loganberries	Spearmint
Celery	Meadow foxtail seed	Spinach
Cherries	Meadowfoam	Squash
Chestnuts	Mink	St. Johns wort
Chickens	Mushrooms	Steelhead
Christmas trees	Mustard	Straw
Clams	Mustard greens	Strawberries
Clover and ladino seed	Mustard seed	Sturgeon
Cod	Nectarines	Sugarbeets
Conifers	Oats	Sunflower oil and seed
Corn	Onions	Sweet Corn
Corn for grain	Orchardgrass seed	Swiss chard
Crabs	Ostriches	Tomatoes
Cranberries	Oysters	Triticale
Cucumbers	Parsley	Trout
Currants	Parsnips	Tuna
Dairy products	Peaches	Turkeys
Deciduous trees	Pears	Turnips
Dill for oil	Peas	Vegetable seeds
Eggplant	Peavine hay	Vetch seed
Eggs	Peppermint	Walnuts
Elderberries	Peppers	Wasabi
Emus	Perch	Watermelons
Endive	Pheasants	Wheat
Equine	Pigeons	Wheatgrass seed
Escarole	Poplars	Wild rice
Evergreens	Potatoes	Wool
Fescue	Potted plants

OREGON AG FACTS

Junior edition

Oregon
Department
of Agriculture

Published June 2009
Oregon Department of Agriculture, 503-986-4550
Web: <http://oregon.gov/ODA>
Statistics provided by USDA,
Oregon Agricultural Statistics
Service, 800-338-2157