

BIOGRAPHIES

John Rounds

John received a B.S. in Forestry from the University of Montana in 1956. He moved to Oregon in 1974 to accept a position as Timber Supply Manager for Brooks Scanlon in Bend. He and his wife own and manage 660 acres of forest land in Crook County. They have been Oregon Small Woodland Association (OSWA) members since the early 1980's. As an active member of OSWA, John served as OSWA's State President from 1998 to 2000. In addition, he has been an independent consulting forester since 1981. John and his wife live near Prineville, Oregon.

Kenneth P. Cummings

Ken grew up in the New England area and received a B.S. in Forestry from the University of Massachusetts in 1975. Ken earned a Masters Degree in Forest Management from Oregon State University in 1977. Ken worked for Boise (Cascade) for 28 years in a variety of positions and gained valuable insight, working in the coastal Douglas-fir regions of Oregon and Washington and the mixed conifer forests of southern Oregon. Ken currently is the Region Manager for Forest Capital Partners, LLC. In that capacity he oversees management on 145,000 acres in southern Oregon. Ken represents the company in many policy related areas, by being on the Board of Directors of Southern Oregon Timber Industries Association (SOTIA) and as a member of the Emergency Fire Cost Committee for the State of Oregon. Ken is a member of the Society of American Foresters. Ken lives in Central Point, Oregon with his wife Paula and they have five children.