

JULY 25 Board of Forestry Meeting

LOCATION: Ecotrust Building in Portland, Oregon. Billy Frank Room on Second Floor.

TIME: 9AM- 2:30PM

PURPOSE:

To explore the opportunities and barriers facing conservation groups and landowners who are interested in promoting conservation values on private forestland and preventing conversion of forests to non-forest uses.

KEY QUESTIONS:

What are conservation-minded parties doing now to promote conservation values on private forestland and to prevent conversion?

What are the barriers and opportunities for those promoting conservation values? What is working and what is not? Are there tools missing from the toolbox?

What is the mix of leadership and actions in the non-profit, for-profit, and governmental sectors needed to overcome barriers and take advantage of opportunities?

OUTCOMES:

The day will end with a list of key topics and desirable action items.

FORMAT:

AM: Brief overviews of key topics followed by presentations/Q and A
Noon: Lunch (provided for all participants)
PM: Facilitated Roundtable

AGENDA:

- 9:00 - 9:10 Setting the Stage -- Jennifer Allen
- 9:10 - 9:30 The Challenge Facing Private Landowners
Brian Kernohan, Forest Capital Partners
Tom Nygren, Small Woodland Owner
- 9:30 -10:00 Acquisitions and Easements
Derek Johnson, The Nature Conservancy
Sarah Deumling, Xena Timber
- 10:00 -10:15 Break
- 10:15 - 11:15 Connecting green builders and timber producers

Issues of supply and demand

Timber manager:	Scott Ferguson, Trout Mtn. Forestry
Purchaser/Builder:	Stephen Aiguier, Green Hammer
Architect:	Clark Brockman, SERA Architects
Connecting the Links:	Participant Pending

11:15 - 12:00 Ecosystem Services Markets

Sara Vickerman, Defenders of Wildlife
Bobby Cochran, Clean Water Services

12:00 - 12:30 Lunch (provided to participants)

12:30 - 12: 50 What's Happening in Washington State?

Ian Hannah, Northwest Natural Resource Group

12:50 - 2:10 Facilitated Roundtable Discussion

Jennifer Allen leads all participants in a group discussion
Part one: Key Challenges and Opportunities
Part two: Action Items -- for BOF and others

2:10 - 2:30 Summary and Wrap-up

Marvin Brown, BOF, Jennifer Allen