

Draft

the Institute of Economics & Agriculture understanding Oregon's Coastal Economy and Environment

*Paula Swedeen, Ph.D. and Dave Batker
Earth Economics*

*Hans Radtke, Ph.D.
The Research Group*

*Roelof Boumans, Ph.D.
Gund Institute for Ecological Economics*

Chuck Willer Coast Range Association

Table of Contents

Executive Summary .....	1
Economic Character of Coastal Oregon .....	2
Ecosystems as Natural Capital.....	4
Ecosystem Services and the Coastal Economy .....	4
Introduction .....	10
Demographic and Economic Description of Oregon Coast ..	12
Demographic .....	13
Understanding the Coastal Economy: Jobs, Economic Sectors and Income .....	22
Detailed Economic Sector Descriptions and Trends ...	26
Summary .....	35
An Ecological Economics Approach to the Oregon Coastal Economy .....	34
Introduction .....	34
Scale and the coastal marine environment .....	35
Four capitals .....	39
Distribution .....	40
Efficient allocation of resources .....	42
Private wealth and public wealth .....	44
Natural Capital and Ecosystem Services of Oregon's Coastal and Marine Environment .....	45
Ecosystems as natural capital .....	45
Differences between natural and human capital .....	45
How marine ecosystems function as natural capital ...	46
Coastal and Marine Ecosystem Types and the Services They Provide .....	47
Relationship Between Ecosystem Services and the Coastal Economy .....	63
Ecosystem Service Valuation and its Relevance to Decision- Making .....	69
Valuation of ecosystem services background .....	69
Valuation techniques .....	70
Marine and coastal ecosystem service valuation work to date	73
What a full valuation for coastal Oregon would entail .....	75
Additional Approaches.....	77
Literature Cited .....	78