RULE SUMMARY

OAR 735-062-0095 established DMV's transition from driver licenses that are valid for four years to licenses that are valid for eight years. That transition period began on October 1, 2000 and ends on October 1, 2008. DMV is repealing OAR 735-062-0095 effective October 1, 2008 as it will no longer be needed.

OAR 735-062-0110 establishes when DMV will issue a replacement driver permit, driver license or identification card. OAR 735-062-0110(2)(L) previously authorized DMV to issue a replacement driver license or driver permit if a person obtains a driver license or driver permit in another state and then moves back to Oregon before the Oregon privileges expire or within one year of their expiration. OAR 735-062-0200 previously authorized DMV to replace or renew an Oregon CDL if the person obtains a CDL in another state and then moves back to Oregon before the Oregon CDL expires or within one year of its expiration. DMV changed this policy because Oregon driving privileges should end when another state issues driving privileges to a person. This helps to ensure that each person has only one driver license. In addition, this change will allow a more accurate count of Oregon drivers and will clarify for law enforcement when a person no longer has driving privileges granted by Oregon.

Beginning October 1, 2008, DMV will invalidate a person's driving privileges or identification card in Oregon upon notice from another state that an Oregon driver permit, driver license or identification card was surrendered to another state and the person obtained driving privileges or an identification card in the other state. The person will no longer be eligible for a replacement Oregon driver permit, driver license or identification card when the person returns to Oregon, but must reapply for Oregon driving privileges or an identification card as would any other person moving to Oregon from another state. DMV amended OAR 735-062-0110 by removing the subsection that allowed DMV to issue a Class-C replacement driver license or driver permit to a person who obtains driving privileges in another jurisdiction and then returns to Oregon. DMV amended OAR 735-062-0200 by removing the sections that authorized a replacement or renewal of an Oregon CDL when a person surrenders an Oregon CDL to another jurisdiction and then reapplies for a CDL in Oregon.

Under certain circumstances, DMV will reissue a driver license, driver permit or identification card for no fee if the applicant does not receive it in the mail. DMV amended OAR 735-062-0092 to specify when a driver license, driver permit or identification card will be reissued. DMV also amended OAR 735-062-0110 to clarify when a person must purchase a replacement license if the person's address has changed and the driver license, driver permit or identification card was not received in the mail.
