RULE SUMMARY

This rule amendment implements HB 2329 (Chapter 360, Oregon Laws 2011) which changed the statutory definitions of all-terrain vehicles and added a new Class IV all-terrain vehicle type.

DMV has amended OAR 735-150-0040 to include Class IV all-terrain vehicles to the list of vehicle types a qualified Oregon vehicle dealer may sell as a designated agent of DMV, pursuant to ORS 802.031.

Additionally, subsection (4)(f) of the rule was amended to clarify that vehicle dealers may only prepare, submit, or prepare and submit documents and collect fees for transfers of registration plates for vehicles they sell. The change is consistent with current policy and dealer practices.
