EVR QUALIFICATIONS: Must have a current Vehicle Dealer Certification on file with DMV Business Licensing and be in good standing. DMV may deny an application for any of the following reasons:

- The dealer's certificate has been in effect for less than 180 days of the date of application.
- Within one year of the date of application, DMV issued a correction notice to the dealer for any violation of the Oregon Vehicle Code or any rule adopted by DMV relating to vehicle dealers.
- The dealer's certificate has been cancelled, suspended or subject to probation by DMV within 5 years of the date of application.
- The dealer has failed to pay any civil penalty imposed by DMV or the Oregon Department of Justice.
- The dealer is not currently qualified to act as DMV's agent pursuant to OAR 735-150-0039.
- The dealer's location failed to pass a business location inspection as described under OAR 735-150-0041(2). Any dealer application that is denied under this subsection may reapply after the dealer implements appropriate security measures or safeguards to the satisfaction of DMV.
