Three To Go

ODOT holds open house Thursday

The Oregon Department of Transportation will hold an open house Oct. 22 to share information on the Interstate 84 Bridge and Exit 64 Project, from 4-7 p.m. at the Port of Hood River, 1000 E. Port Marina Drive.

Learn about plans to replace the I-84 bridge at exit 64 and improve the freeway ramps and Button Bridge Road starting in 2010. For more information call 503-731-3490 or e-mail Susan.C.Hanson@odot.state.or.us.

No-fuss holiday pies

The Hood River Valley Adult Center is selling homemade fruit pies left over from Harvest Fest for the discounted price of $10.

The pies have been frozen and can be picked up at the center, 2010 Sterling Place. All proceeds will be used to support the Meals on Wheels program.

The available varieties of pie include: marionberry, huckleberry, apple and strawberry-rhubarb.

For more information call 386-2060.

'Women of Distinction' announced

Soroptimist of Hood River has announced the winners of this year's Women of Distinction awards.

They are JoAnn Wittenberg of Cascade Locks and Joella Dethman and Jan Veldhuisen-Virk of Hood River.

An awards luncheon will be Nov. 4, 11:30 a.m. at the Best Western Hood River Inn Gorge Room. Tickets are $15, at Waucoma Bookstore. For details call 541-490-1996.

The Soroptimist Women of Distinction award is given annually to two or three Hood River County women who have worked in a professional or volunteer capacity to make a significant difference in our community. Details about the winners will be published in the Oct. 28 Hood River News.
