Welcome to the Oregon Trucking Associations' (OTA) new web site! Please send feedback about our new site to ortruck@ortrucking.org. We want your input and suggestions.

OTA has been serving the needs of the state's trucking industry for more than 50 years. OTA is the only organization promoting and protecting the interests of the entire Oregon industry before the legislature, administrative agencies and courts. The Association is an authorized provider of both state and county permits. OTA also provides many services, including insurance and trainings, which improve the efficiency of its members' operations. Visit our services page for more information about how OTA can be your one-stop shopping transportation source.

OTA's members range from suppliers to owner-operators to carriers that run millions of miles a year. OTA members have varying types of operations, including: general commodities; sand and gravel; forest products; household goods; bulk; heavy haulers; warehouse; and, local cartage.
