

Oregon Jobs and Transportation Act Sunrise Project Open House

In 2009 the Oregon Legislature passed the Jobs and Transportation Act (JTA), providing $100 million for transportation improvements to the Sunrise Corridor. Over the past few months, ODOT and Clackamas County have been working together to identify an affordable package of improvements - consistent with the Sunrise Corridor Preferred Alternative - that will reduce congestion and enhance economic development opportunities in Clackamas County.

Clackamas County Board of Commissioners Chair Lynn Peterson, Clackamas County Commissioner Bob Austin, and ODOT Region 1 Manager Jason Tell invite you to attend the JTA Sunrise Project Open House to learn more about the project proposal and to provide your comments and feedback.
