Safe Routes Advisory Committee seeks new member

The Oregon Safe Routes to School Program is seeking a member representing law enforcement to serve on its advisory committee. The Safe Routes Advisory Committee reviews grant applications, provides technical assistance and serves as an advocate for the safe routes program. The 9-member volunteer citizen committee meets at least quarterly in Salem, and teleconferencing is available. Applications are due Oct. 30, 2009. Find out more at www.oregon.gov/saferoutes.
