

Michael Bodaken

Michael Bodaken serves both as President of the National Housing Trust and President and Treasurer of the National Housing Trust/Enterprise Preservation Corporation. The Trust engages in preservation policy, affordable housing lending and development. He has been largely responsible for growing the organization in becoming a leader in the field of affordable housing preservation. Mr. Bodaken's efforts for the Trust have directly led to the preservation and improvement of over 20,000 apartments throughout the nation, involving over $1 billion in financing. Additionally, Mr. Bodaken serves as President of NHT/Enterprise, an organization founded by the Trust which owns and operates an additional 3,000 affordable apartments in eight states and the District of Columbia, and NHT Community Development Fund, an organization that provides low interest loans to preservation developers across the U.S.

Prior to coming to the Trust, Mr. Bodaken served as the Housing/Community Reinvestment Coordinator ("Deputy Mayor") for the City of Los Angeles. In this position, Mr. Bodaken provided budgetary, legislative and policy assistance to city organizations with annual budgets of more than $140 million, which were responsible for creation and maintenance of over 15,000 affordable rental and single family homes.

Mr. Bodaken is the convener of the National Preservation Working Group, a member of the Advisory Board of the Housing Development Reporter, as well as the Executive Committees of the National Housing Conference. He serves on the board of directors of the National Leased Housing Association, Homes for America, Housing Preservation Project, Urban Vision, Fairfax and Montgomery County Housing Tax Forces, and Stewards for Affordable Housing (SAHF). He is a frequent guest lecturer and panelist at housing industry events.
