Fifty out of 62 Clackamas County businesses pass multi-agency check for alcohol sales to minors

Portland, OR – Eighty one percent of Clackamas County businesses that were checked March 19 passed by refusing to sell alcohol to the minor volunteers. The compliance check was performed by the Oregon Liquor Control Commission, Clackamas County Sheriff's Office, Canby Police Department, Milwaukie Police Department, Molalla Police Department and West Linn Police Department.

The sales check resulted in an 81 percent compliance rate, which is consistent with the statewide average of 78 percent.

"Keeping alcohol out of the hands of minors is a priority for the OLCC," said Carl Lewis, Regional Enforcement Manager. "We're happy to see licensees doing a good job of checking ID correctly."

The commission performs the minor sales checks in an effort to reduce drinking by minors, which is a serious problem throughout the state. The OLCC tests about 1,800 licensed liquor businesses each year. Licensees or their employees can be held liable for alcohol-related damages and injuries if they serve or sell alcohol to a minor.

The OLCC offers a free training course on how to check ID's. Participants learn how to identify false identification and the laws regarding minors and alcohol. Additional training opportunities are available including classes for store clerks and service permit holders. Interested persons can call the local OLCC office to schedule a training session. During the sales checks, a minor volunteer attempts to purchase alcohol from a licensed business to see if staff are checking ID's correctly and refusing to sell alcohol to anyone under 21. Commission inspectors or other law enforcement officers supervise the minor volunteers. The volunteers carry their own legal ID that identifies them as under 21 and do not disguise their age or lie to encourage the sale of alcohol.

Under Oregon law, businesses in cities with a population of 20,000 or more have an equal chance of being randomly selected for a minor decoy compliance check. A business can also be selected for a compliance check if there is a documented complaint of sales to minors. Businesses in cities with a population under 20,000 and unincorporated areas in counties are not subject to these selection requirements.
