Check local liquor store for Fourth of July hours

PORTLAND, Ore. – The Oregon Liquor Control Commission reminds customers that liquor stores in Oregon have the option to open on Sunday, July 4. Since the holiday is on a Sunday, liquor store agents can choose to close on Monday if they are normally not open on Sunday.

State law provides that liquor agents have the discretion to be open or closed on Sundays and holidays. July 4 is one of the nine state holidays defined by state law.

“This allows liquor agents to have the flexibility of staying open or celebrating the holiday with their friends and family,” said Brian Flemming, Retail Services Director. Retail liquor agents in Oregon are independent contractors.

Please call your local liquor store to determine their holiday operating hours. Phone numbers are available at the OLCC’s Web site:

The nine state holidays are:

- New Year’s Day
- Martin Luther King Jr. Day
- President’s Day
- Memorial Day
- Fourth of July
- Labor Day
- Veteran’s Day
- Thanksgiving
- Christmas Day
