

OLCC may deny your permit if you have:

Note: OLCC uses the conviction date and ending date of diversion to calculate time.

These felony drug convictions

- 1 possession in the past year
- 1 manufacture, delivery or distribution in the past 2 years
- 2 drug convictions ever, if 1 is in the past 3 years
- 3 or more drug convictions ever, if 1 is in the past 6 years

These DUII or Furnishing Alcohol to Minors diversions or convictions

- 2 DUIIs in the past 3 years, if 1 is in the past year
- Any combination of 3 DUIIs or furnishing alcohol to minors in the past 7 years, if 1 is in the past 18 months
- Any combination of 4 or more DUIIs or furnishing alcohol to minors in the past 10 years, if 1 is in the past 3 years

These DUII and felony drug diversions or convictions

- Any combination of 4 or more DUII or felony drug diversions or convictions in the past 10 years, if 1 is in the past 2 years

These felony crime of violence convictions (Crimes which threaten, or cause, or attempt to cause physical injury or harm to another person. Some examples are murder, rape, assault, sodomy, armed robbery, etc.)

- 1 in the past 2 years
- 2 ever, if 1 is in the past 3 years
- 3 or more ever, if 1 is in the past 6 years

These felony driving while suspended (DWS) or revoked (DWR) convictions

- 1 in the past year
- 2 ever, if 1 is in the past 3 years
- 3 or more ever, if 1 is in the past 6 years

You may overcome your history and OLCC may give you a permit if:

- A mental health professional said you have an alcohol or drug addiction and
- You are in or have finished alcohol or drug treatment (whichever applies) and
- You have not taken alcohol or drugs in the last 24 months (whichever applies) and
- You have completed all of your parole or probation requirements