

Physicians having never received Board approval to be a supervising physician must complete this quiz.

Supervising Physician's Name: _____, MD / DO
(Print Name)

PA Name: _____
(Print Name)

MULTIPLE CHOICES – CHECK THE CORRECT ANSWER:

1. A physician assistant's license may be terminated by the Board if the physician assistant:
 - a) Holds himself/herself out to be a licensed physician
 - b) Performs services beyond the physician assistants' competence
 - c) Is guilty of gross negligence
 - d) All of the above

2. A physician assistant may exercise independent judgment in determining and prescribing treatment only if:
 - a) The supervising physician is not immediately available
 - b) The patient has agreed
 - c) The physician assistant has been granted permission by the supervising physician in accordance with the Board approved Practice Description
 - d) The physician assistant has been adequately trained to do so

3. The purpose of the physician assistant program is to:
 - a) Provide the physician more income
 - b) Allow the physician assistant independent privileges
 - c) Enable physicians to extend high quality care to more people
 - d) Provide a setting in which trained physician assistants may practice

4. Upon termination of employment, the physician, and the physician assistant must provide to the Board:
 - a) A detailed report of the reasons for termination
 - b) A simple announcement of such termination
 - c) Recommendation for future employment
 - d) A statement as to the value of the working association

5. The definition of a physician assistant is:
 - a) A qualified medical assistant.
 - b) A person qualified to provide medical services under the supervision of a physician.
 - c) A qualified and trained medical technician.
 - d) A person qualified to provide nursing and other auxiliary services.

- 6. A physician assistant may practice at a location other than the supervising physician if:
- a) The supervising physician or designated agent will provide for the maintenance of direct, verbal communication by telephone, radio, radio-telephone, television or similar means, and will provide a minimum of four hours of on-site supervision every two weeks.
 - b) The practice is listed in the practice description of the physician assistant and is pre-approved by the Board.
 - c) Medical services provided by the physician assistant are reviewed by the supervising physician on a regularly schedule basis as determined by the Board.
 - d) All of the above
- 7. A physician assistant may change a Board approved Practice Description by:
- a) The physician assistant writing a letter to the Board informing them of the change
 - b) The physician assistant submitting a revised Practice Description and having it approved by the Board
 - c) The supervising physician submitting a revised Practice Description and having it approved by the Board
 - d) Telephoning the Board office, requesting a change in the Practice Description and waiting for approval
- 8. Physician assistants may change supervising physicians only after:
- a) The previous supervising physician has submitted a report on the termination
 - b) The physician assistant has submitted a report on the termination
 - c) The supervising physician has submitted a letter requesting he/she be appointed the new supervising physician and has filed a new Practice Description Form, and Board approval has been granted to begin the new practice
 - d) All of the above.

TRUE OR FALSE – CIRCLE THE CORRECT ANSWER

- | | | |
|--|---|---|
| 9. A physician may supervise more than one physician assistant. | T | F |
| 10. A physician assistant student trainee may perform medical services when the Board approves such services, and the medical services are rendered within the scope of an accredited Physician Assistant Program. | T | F |
| 11. A physician assistant may practice independently in any area of the state if the supervising physician requests it. | T | F |
| 12. A physician assistant is required to wear a nametag with the designation of “physician assistant” thereon while performing medical services. | T | F |
| 13. A complaint filed with the | T | F |
| 14. A licensed physician assistant may unconditionally issue written or oral prescriptions for medications, Schedule II -V. | T | F |
| 15. A physician assistant may write prescriptions for any Schedule II drug as long as the physician approves. | T | F |
| 16. A physician assistant may dispense emergency medications if it is part of the Board approved practice description. | T | F |
| 17. A supervising physician may leave the state for short periods and allow the physician assistant to continue to practice as long as the supervising physician or agent maintains telephone contact. | T | F |
| 18. The physician assistant may practice in a specialty different from that of the supervising physician. | T | F |

I CERTIFY THAT I HAVE READ AND COMPLETED THIS QUESTIONNAIRE ON THE MEDICAL PRACTICE ACT AND THE ADMINISTRATIVE RULES RELATING TO PHYSICIAN ASSISTANTS IN OREGON.

Signature of Supervising Physician

Date