RE: Hosting a Registered Nurse Anesthesia Student in Oregon

If you are planning to host a student nurse anesthetist in the State of Oregon you need to provide the following information to the Oregon State Board of Nursing:

- a) A letter from the school or accredited anesthesia program, which includes the name, credentials, and license numbers of the faculty member accountable for general supervision.
- b) Verification of school or anesthesia programs' National accreditation.
- c) Currently enrolled students including their RN license numbers and dates of preceptorship.
- d) A written, signed agreement between the student and a CRNA or anesthesiologist who holds licensure in Oregon and has agreed to serve as a preceptor.

Please submit the above requested information to the Oregon State Board of Nursing at least 30 days before the students anticipated arrival. Information may be submitted to the attention of Advanced Practice.

Thank you,

Tracy Klein, Advance Practice Consultant
